

Terms and Conditions

- Eligible Contestant can participate individually or in a group of maximum 3 persons.
- Only one idea shall be entertained from one group of participants.
- The ideas presented should be original and not part of any existing Rules notified by MOEF&CC or CPCB.
- The decision of the Competent Authority i.e. PCBA shall be final and binding.
- PCBA reserves the right to publish brief accounts of the ideas presented by the participants on their website along with team/individual details.
- PCBA reserves the right to share the information submitted by the participants with experts and reviewers for proper and fair assessment.
- PCBA reserves the right to call off, terminate or withhold the Ideation Hackathon or modify the terms and conditions, without prior notice.
- PCBA shall not be held responsible for any loss, damage, expenses etc. incurred by the participants while participating in the contest.
- Correspondence with the participants shall be made strictly through the email provided by them through the Google Forms.